

Daniel was a good man who worked hard and trusted in God. Daniel lived in a place called Babylon where he worked for the king. Every day Daniel would pray at his window and he would pray 3 times a day!

One day the king noticed how hard Daniel had been working and that he was the better at his job than anyone else. So the king made plans to put him in charge of the whole kingdom.

Some of the king's other workers did not like this at all and they got jealous and plotted to find a fault in Daniel but they couldn't find anything! Daniel was faithful, responsible and completely trustworthy.

The workers decided that the only way they would be able to find fault in Daniel was if it was to do with his faith in God. So they went to the king and persuaded him to sign a law saying that no one could pray to anyone except the king for the next 30 days and if they did they would be thrown into the lion's den. When the king signed a law it meant couldn't be changed.

When Daniel heard about this law he went home to pray as he usually would, by the window, three times a day. The king's workers who had been plotting against Daniel went to his house and found him praying and asking for God's help. So they went straight back to the king and told him that Daniel had been praying.

When the king heard this, he was deeply troubled and spent the rest of the day trying to find a way to save Daniel. That evening the king's workers went back to him and reminded him that the law had been signed and so couldn't be changed.

Daniel would have to be thrown into the lion's den.

So Daniel was arrested and thrown into the lion's den. The king said to Daniel "May your God, rescue you."

That night the king couldn't sleep and when morning came he ran to the lion's den and cried out to Daniel "Daniel, was your God able to rescue you?"

A voice came out from the lion's den. It was Daniel! "Long live the king!" said Daniel "My God sent His angel to shut the lion's mouth so they would not hurt me"

The king was filled with joy and he commanded that Daniel be lifted out of the lion's den. Not a scratch was found on him for he had trusted in his God.

The king gave orders to arrest the workers who had plotted against Daniel and they were thrown into the lion's den along with their families. Daniel continued to succeed in everything he did and the king praised God for what He had done to save Daniel.

Even though it was hard Daniel chose to do what was right.
Christians believe that God is with us wherever we go just like
He was with Daniel.

Sometimes in our lives bad people might try to get us to do the wrong thing. How can we be like Daniel and always choose to do what is right?
